Do your duty to the best of your ability, O Arjuna, with your mind attached to the Lord. Give up worry for your mind attached to the Lord. Give up worry for the results. Remain calm in both success and failure, because one has no control over the results. The calmness of mind is the fruit of Nishkama-Karma-yoga. (2.48)

Do your duty. Thus you shall certainly remember Me at the time of death and come to Me if your mind and intellect are ever focused on Me. (8.07)

Always remember Me before starting any work and do your duty. Thus you shall certainly remember Me at the time of death and come to Me if your mind and intellect are ever focused on Me. (8.07)

An all-knowing being, O Creator and Lord of all, God of gods, the Supreme person, and Lord of the universe, only You know Yourself. No one can know God, the Source of creation. (10.15)
The devotee who offers all his or her work as a worship to Me, who has detached-attachment or no deep attachment to anything, who is free from enmity toward any creature, reaches Me. (11.55)

Lust (for wealth, power, and sensual pleasures), anger, and greed are the three gates of hell leading to the downfall (or reincarnation) of the individual soul. Uncontrolled sensual desire is the root of all evils and misery. Therefore, one must learn to give up these three. (16.21)

Lord Krishna said: I consider the best yogis to be those devotees who worship with supreme faith by fixing their mind on My personal form. (12.02)

Dislike for sensual pleasures, absence of “I and my”, thinking about pain and suffering in birth, old age, disease and death leads to Self-knowledge and Nirvana. This world is called the house of misery. (13.08)

One who is always God-conscious and depends on My will and, remains calm in pain and pleasure, censure and praise, to whom a clod, a stone, and gold are alike, and to whom the dear and the unalike are friendly and is full of devotion, attains Me. (14.24)

One who shall study and help propagate this supreme secret philosophy to My devotees, shall be doing the highest devotional service (Bhakti) to Me, shall be very dear to Me and shall certainly come to Me. The gift of knowledge is the best gift. (18.68-69)

Please download, copy or use this on your web page and help us distribute (or translate these 18 verses in your local languages) the nectar of Gita as far as humans reside.

contact for info: sanjay@gita-society.com